1899, I have the honor to state that having regard to the fact that during the ensuing season, special precautions will have to be taken to keep ourselves informed about the occurrence of Plague cases and suspicious cases and even fewer cases and as it may also be necessary to send Plague patients to the Bangalore Plague Hospital, it is considered advisable as personally represented to you yesterday to bring the retrenchment scheme into effect from the 1st of November instead of from the 1st of October 1899. In the interim arrangements will be matured for the efficient working of correct 2

Registration of births and deaths with the aid of the Municipal Servants and the same reported for your information I request that formal Sanction may be early accorded to the above in proposal.

I have the honor to be

Sir,

Your most obedient servant
